Primary work of Holy Spirit

A white dove is shown in flight, its wings spread wide, against a blue background. The dove is the central focus of the image, and its wings are the most prominent feature. The background is a solid blue color, which makes the white dove stand out. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.

The word “manner” means “kind”
or “type.” The unpardonable sin is not a kind of sin.

Any kind of sin can be forgiven

Any sin Forgiven Cleansed / Repented of

1 John 1:9

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

We may be great sinners
but we have a great Savior.

From their sins

What is the unpardonable sin?

A man with a mustache, wearing a blue and white striped button-down shirt, is shown from the chest up. He has a serious, contemplative expression and is looking slightly to the right of the camera. The background is a dimly lit room with a lamp on the right side, which has a white pleated shade and a white ceramic base. The lamp is turned on, casting a warm glow. The overall lighting is soft and focused on the man's face. The text "Against the Holy Spirit." is overlaid at the bottom of the image in a white, bold, sans-serif font with a yellow underline under each word.

Against the Holy Spirit.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with warm, glowing colors of orange, red, and yellow. In the foreground, there is a dark silhouette of a person standing on the right side, looking towards the horizon. The overall mood is contemplative and spiritual.

We can only understand the unpardonable sin if we understand how the Holy Spirit has worked through the Bible.
